DEDICATION

TO MR. AND MRS. ALBERT BLICKENSDERFER
Better known to us as "Abie" and "Grace"

We, the class of 1960, wish to dedicate this 51st edition of THE GOAL for your untiring efforts "behind-the-scenes" in helping us through the years in our many activities such as dances, plays, and dinners. Our memories of G.H.S. will always include you, and we wish you many more happy years here.

"Twelve year Journey of Class of '60"

'Twas the month of September in '48,
To us a most important date.
For in that month of that year
We began our school career.

We did our best to put to the test
By means of our antics and unmatched jest,
Our patient and tolerant teachers,
Who often uttered, "Oh, What creatures!"

Some of the teachers in our early days
Were Mrs. Katz, Mrs. Montague, Mrs. James and Mrs. Hayes
Mrs. Lyon, and Mr. Gordon, too,
Bravely led this devilish crew.

'Twas the fall of '54,
When we first entered the high school door.
Up to the 3rd floor we marched with pride,
Each with his friends at his side.

Never shall we forget our Junior high;
And, when we left, there was a sorrowful sigh
For the two who kept us firmly in hand,
Mr. Barbour and Mrs. Begland.

Into high school we marched with hopes high
Full of the spirit of "do or die!"
As Freshmen we were led by our coach, Mr. Scott,
A man whom we all liked quite a lot.

Then into the sophomore year we came
Still full of hope yet—not quite the same
Mr. Cramlet was our sponsor here
As well as in our junior year.

Ah! Our junior year! Can we ever forget
Our comedy production "The Perfect Idiot!"
If we were to make money, we had to hop
Selling candy, popcorn, peanuts, and pop.

Our junior-senior prom was held in the spring;
That was the nite we all got into the swing.
"Rendezvous of the Stars" was our theme;
The evening for all was a heavenly dream.

Then, too, as seniors we shall never forget
The unfailing assistance from Mr. Padgitt.
We worked quite hard, for we hoped that soon
We all would be singing a traveling tune.

Our play, We Shook the Family Tree was a hit, including John's faux-pas
When he unexpectedly entered with a boisterous "Ah haaaa!"
Mr. Larrick was nervous, as all directors are;
But, when it was all over, he was riding a star.

To all the village and to every farm
We sound this history, sincere and warm:
Not a voice in the darkness, not a knock at the door,
But this poem that shall echo forevermore!

For, borne in the annual of the Past,
Through our school's history, to the last,
The people will open this book to read
About our class—its every action and deed.

And so this history, I bring to an end
With sincerest wishes to all my friends.
May happiness, prosperity, and peace
For each of you never cease.

These wishes to you are borne on every wind
With deep sincerity from your friend, Bevra Blind.

Class Will

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty, of the Village of Gnadenhutten, State of Ohio, being of sound memory and considering the uncertainty of the frail and transitory life, do therefore, make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, here by revoking all other and former wills made by us at any time.

ARTICLE I

We appoint the Faculty of Gnadenhutten High School the executor of this will, and we direct that no bond be required of it in the performance of its duties as such.

ARTICLE II

We direct all our lawful debts, testamentary, and funeral expenses to be paid and discharged.

ARTICLE III

We bequeath all of our estate to the best of use of whatsoever nature, and wheresoever situated, to the following persons, if in such is the case they may survive us.

I, Bevra Blind, will my long hair to Carol Martin and my long finger nails to anyone who needs them.
I, Ronald Clark, will my height and weight to Ed Allensworth and my "bird cage" to Gerry Edwards.
I, Edward Crites, will my muscles and build to Gerry Edwards and my luck of driving Mr. Virtue's car to Marvin Brown.
I, Ronnie Davis, will my almost perfect attendance record to those who play hooky and my nickname "Snake" to anyone who can live up to it.
I, Janice Emery, will my calm temper to Mrs. Virtue and my habit of chewing gum in Mr. Bennett's classes to anyone who can get away with it.
I, Merrit Fahner, will my never failing habit of being late during the ten minute period to Bill Blick and my quick temper to someone to control.
I, Gary Fivecoat, will my lit. book to anyone who will burn it and my ability to get thrown out of typing to Homer Helter.
I, Virginia Fouts, will my red hair to my sister, Roberta, and my height to Betty Jones.
I, Judy Gooding, will my ability to drive to my sister, Marge, and my scholarship to Peoli Tech. to anyone who can meet the requirements.
I, John Hall, will my famous "Ah-Ha" to the next person who flubs in the future class plays and my ability to dunk a basketball to Dale Schreiner.
I, Doyle Harding, will the fun I have skipping fourth period study hall for the purpose of getting a haircut to Hank Crahan and my many educational books to Carl Dichler.
I, Norma Heck, will my bottle of sleeping pills to Mr. Virtue who I hope can use them and my living room full of boys to Sharon Mowl.
I, Jerry Herbert, will my job at the A & P to Bill Davis and my job of Toastmaster at the Prom to Raymond Rank whose nerves, I hope are in good shape.
I, Bob Hines, will my attendance at the Honor Banquet to Clayton Williams and my guns and many days of hunting to Donnie Galbraith.
I, Paul Hoffman, leave my job in the office to Gary Moore and my luck of walking into the home nursing class during bath lessons to Donnie Hamilton.
I, Sharon Jester, leave my entire estate, consisting of a few dollars, to the future seniors in hope that it will help them with their trip and my job as treasurer to anyone who wants the headache.
I, Janice Kochman, will my quietness to Dixie Wallace and my long ride to school to Sue Gilmore.
I, Shirley Miller, will my blushing to Sharon Dutton and my almost perfect attendance to Linda Davis.
I, Karen Parrish, will my spittoon to Sharon Mowl and my dimples to Sue Gilmore.
I, Jack Pfeiffer, will my Playboy Calendar to Mr. Larrick and my seat in the senior home room to Roberta Brick.
I, Vera Robinson, will my ability to remain calm while being teased to Dixie Wallace and my farmer's boots to Mr. Brown.
I, Bill Royer, will my curly hair to Dale Stewart and my ability to try to stay on the good side of the teachers to Gary Conaway.
I, Lynn Scoggin, will my car to the first person that can keep all the bills paid and my ability to get along with the girls to Jay Galbraith.
I, Frank Wanosik, will my short walk to school to the Schreiner Twins and my sax to Ricky Crites.
To Mr. Virtue, we will a new set of fingers to replace the ones he has been snapping for many years.
To Mrs. Virtue, we will another group of boys to take home economics as nice as the ones this year were.
To Mr. Larrick, we will a new batch of seniors to replace us, and we hope they won't be as much trouble as we were.
To Mr. Padgett, we will a more ambitious journalism class that will work harder on the ads than we did.
To Mr. Ronald, we will many more successful years at good old G. H. S.
To Mr. Lane, we leave all our flat notes in hope that he can make them sharp.
To Mr. Bennett, we will much better behaved classes than there were this year.
To Mrs. Gallagher, we will a study hall that will asked to be excused instead of just getting up and walking out.
To Mrs. Begland, we will another member of the faculty to help with the new eighth grade.
To Mr. Gaume, we will all of the Mad Magazines in hopes that through him the future seniors will learn something.
To Mr. Brown, we will ten more flights of stairs to keep watch over.
To Abie, we will a small motor car to travel back and forth from high school to grade school.
To our Cooks, Grace, Freda, and Olive, we will a senior class that will sign their names on the list, not just get in line without signing.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared as and for our Last Will and Testament by the Senior Class, the above named testor, in presence of us, who, at their request and in the presence of us and of others have subscribed their names hereto as witnesses on the day and year last aforesaid.

Class Prophecy

In 1970 I, Shirley Miller, took a vacation from my job as a secretary to visit important cities and historic places and to see my classmates. While flying to Columbus, Ohio on a Trans-Continental Airlines plane, I discovered that the stewardess was no one else but Janice Kochman. We visited until I arrived at Columbus and she told me Norma Heck was doing civil service work in Columbus. I visited with Norma for a while after I got there and I learned from her that Vera Robinson was working as a typist for Ed Crites who is now a business executive in a nearby city. So before I left Columbus I went to see Ed and Vera and then was on my way to New York.

In New York I went to see a Broadway show which was starring Janice Emery, a famous actress, and after the show while visiting with Janice she told me Bevra Blind and Sharon Jester were working for a movie producer in New York. Following a short visit with Bevra and Sharon, I was off for Chicago to see Virginia Fouts and Karen Parrish, registered nurses and John Hall, a lab technician, who are all working at City Hospital.

Karen and Virginia informed me that Jack Pfeiffer and Frank Wanosik were working as chemists in a chemical plant owned by Doyle Harding and I said that I would be passing by the plant to see them.

Later in the day as I was relaxing for a minute or two, I read that Bob Hines, who is in the army, had been promoted to the rank of general. Bob is stationed in Texas so I decided I would have to go to see him. While touring the army base he told me he was writing to Jerry Herbert who was in the Navy and to Lynn Scoggin who was in the Marine Corps. Neither of the boys was stationed in the United States, so I thought it best to write each one a letter.

A few days later I was on my way to California to see Merritt Fahner, who owned one of the biggest "dead businesses" in the state. While talking to Merritt I noticed that a couple of boys were working on hearses and discovered they were Bill Royer and Ronnie Davis. Merritt said they were two very good mechanics.

My last stop was at a high school in a nearby town where I had learned Gary Fivecoat was principal. He told me Judy Gooding was teaching home economics and Paul Hoffman, geometry, in his school. He also mentioned that the school was having a very successful year in basketball and that the coach was Ronnie Clark.

After a short visit with each of these, I was on my way home. On my arrival I thought back over my trip and the reunions with my classmates and was happy at the successes of the members of the class of '60.
